- d. At least two delegates are to be named to represent Mexico in the World Youth Festival to be held in Berlin in August 1951. One of these delegates may be from the Communist Youth.
 - e. The JP and CJM will be particularly active in the peace campaign and will try to attract Catholic youth groups if possible. The youth organizations are to be careful not to provoke the police by their actions. They are also to refrain from attacking the Mexican Government and from excessively overt attacks upon the United States, since their sole objective is to publicize the undesirability of war.
 - f. Meetings and discussions are to be held for the purpose of spreading anti-United States sentiment within the CJM and JP.
 - g. The two organizations will publicize their opposition to the expenditure of public funds for military purposes and will urge that the funds be utilized for agriculture, education, and similar purposes. They are to urge the entire world to disarm and will make a special point of opposing the use of the atomic bomb.
 - h. The CJM and JP will be organized to work with the Partido Popular in the coming elections and will spread propaganda, assist at public meetings, and collect funds.
 - i. The youth organizations will defend North Korea and demonstrate that the United Nations, dominated by the United States, has actually sanctioned the aggression. They will demand that Mexico act independently of the United States in the United Nations.
 - j. The organizations will attack compulsory military service, but only by legal means, and the members are not to refuse to perform military duties when they are drafted.
 - k. The organizations will oppose and boycott American films, radio programs, and publications.
 - l. The CJM and JP will oppose all anti-Communist groups, considering them to be fascist reactionaries.
 - m. The CJM and JP will support and cooperate with labor unions which are not under government control.
 - n. The CJM and JP will endeavor to infiltrate all kinds of youth clubs for the purpose of propagandizing for peace and in order to obtain the support of these clubs for the Partido Popular in the coming elections.
3. The CJM was to send delegates to the Partido Popular meeting scheduled to be held in Mexico City in February 1951.
